

July 10, 2004

Obit: Marlin Simmons

- Services for Marlin Simmons, 70, of Frankfort, will be 10:30 am, Thursday, June 10th at Westside Wesleyan Church, Bristol. Rev. Bob McHenry will officiate. Burial will follow in Sunset Memorial Gardens, Aberdeen under the direction of Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton.
- Marlin died Monday, June 07, 2004 at Beverly Healthcare Center, Redfield.
- Marlin was born on January 20, 1934 to Raymond and Myrtle (Jacobson) Simmons on the family farm near Verdon. He attended rural school in Beotia Township. Following school, he worked on the family farm. Marlin continued to farm with his brothers, after the death of his parents.
- Marlin was a member of Westside Wesleyan Church, Bristol. He enjoyed his life on the farm, caring for his dogs and livestock. His hobbies included hunting and gun collecting.
- Survivors include his two brothers; Elwood Simmons and Darwin Simmons, both of Frankfort, several aunts and cousins.
- Preceding him in death were his parents, one infant brother and one infant sister.
- Casketbearers will be Jerry Jacobson, Allan Jacobson, Rick Buhler, Jim McComsey, John Hojnacke and Scott Krueger.